

Mr Nicholas Davie

Nicholas Davie is a distinguished business leader and philanthropist with a deep commitment to charity and community impact. Since 1999, he has been actively involved in charitable work and as a Founding Board Member and Co-Chairman of Bestest, alongside former Australian Prime Minister Bob Hawke and CEO Gina Boon. Bestest focuses on providing vital support to children in need, reflecting Nicholas's passion for making a difference, especially for kids.

Nicholas' professional background is in marketing/advertising, gaining valuable experience in both New York and Chicago before returning to become the CEO and Co-Owner of Publicis Mojo, the renowned marketing and advertising agency in Australia/NZ. After Publicis' buyout of Mojo, Nicholas now serves as the Chairman of Centrifuge Capital, an AI-based hedge fund, where he applies his now extensive expertise in AI, finance, and leadership.
